Waunakee blood drive— On April 23, from 11:30-5:30 p.m., First Presbyterian church will host the Waunakee blood drive. For appointments, please contact the American Red Cross at 1-800-448-3543.

Waunakee rummage sale time is approaching—

On Mother's Day weekend, May 6-8, Waunakee will be full of rummage sale opportunities. We are planning to coordinate again this year with Waunakee Neighborhood Connections. We are still in the planning phase, but in the next month we will need your help. First, we will need people who can volunteer their time. You can work a shift while the sale is happening, or you can come ahead of time to help set-up and price items. We also need you to be checking through your boxes and piles of stuff to find treasures to donate. Have an old fish tank you'll never set up again? Planning to replace a loveseat? We don't have the storage room to accept your items early, but please hang on to them! We'll let you know the dates/times you can bring them in to church. Last year, this was a great fundraiser and an excellent opportunity to help out a community organization. With your help, this year can be even better! We will also need people to make baked goods to sell.

At the end of April the Gad Tribe would like to buy hope for a hungry family, and we need your help! For the entire month of April, all profits from the sale of the Fairly Traded products will be used by the Gad Tribe to buy a Flock of Hope (chicks, ducklings and goslings) through the Heifer Project. The eggs the flock lays will feed the family and the extra eggs can be sold so their kids can go to school. We need to raise $60 so please help us by buying coffee, tea and candy bars during April. Thank you!
